JUROR/JUDGE OF AWARDS: Steve Blackburn

We are very excited to have Steve Blackburn as our juror of selection and juror of awards. Blackburn is a watercolor artist from Mishawaka, Indiana. His work has been exhibited in many national and regional exhibitions, such as the Kentucky Watercolor Society and the Louisiana Watercolor Society. For many years Mr. Blackburn has taught his unique style of watercolor in classes and workshops all over the US. He was featured in the American Artist publication "Watercolor – Summer 1997." His image "Forgotten Treasure" was included in the book "Best of Watercolor – Painting Composition: by Rockport Publishers, and one of his paintings is featured in the book "Best of Watercolor 3". Mr. Blackburn won the grand prize for his piece "Sunbathe" during the international floral competition sponsored by International Artist magazine in 2001, and his work was featured in the 2002 October/November issue of their magazine. His work is displayed at www.stephenblackburn.com .

WORKSHOP: Pour It On – Pouring Watercolor with instructor Steve Blackburn will be held at the Rosenfeld Studio at the Arts Center of Yates County from 9 am – 4 pm on August 17 & 18. See the Arts Center website at www.artscenteryatescounty.org for more information.
