JUROR OF SELECTIONS

Yael Maimon - www.yaelmaimon.com

Yael Maimon is best known for her Cats painting series. For her, it's both fun and a challenge trying to capture their facial expressions, gestures and body language on canvas or paper. She enjoys painting in a variety of media including oil, pastel, acrylic, watercolor and mixed media. She likes "playing" with the colors and constantly experimenting. In her work process there's always room for improvisation and spontaneity. Although grounded in realism, Maimon's paintings are often impressionist in nature. Her artwork was featured in collective art exhibitions in Israel, gained international recognition and has been bought by private collectors.

JUDGE OF AWARDS

Colette Ody Smith, PSA - www.coletteodyasmith.com

For over 25 years, Colette Ody Smith has pursued her love of pastels, refining her skills and being increasingly engaged in the artistic community. Known primarily for contemporary landscapes that are a fusion of realism and abstraction, she has developed working methods that affirm the expressive range of this versatile medium. Most often her paintings feature water, rocks, and foliage and are usually created with pastels over a watercolor underpainting. In doing this she is charmed to be using the same elements of dust and water that inspire her to paint. Whether painting, teaching, judging, or writing, Smith feels blessed to be an artist and to be able to do this work she loves.
